

97th Annual 2006 NAACP National Convention

NAACP Diversity Job Fair as part of the NAACP National Convention

Washington, D.C.

Tuesday, July 18, 2006: Noon - 8PM

Wednesday, July 19, 2006: 10AM - 4PM

Washington Convention Center

Hall A

(801 Mount Vernon Place N.W., Washington DC, 20001)

Sales, Healthcare, Finance, Computer,
Engineering, Education, Retail,
Restaurant, Administration, and more!

The 2006 NAACP National Convention Diversity Job Fair will be featured as an official part of the NAACP National Convention. In 2005 over 4,000 experienced candidates in the areas of Sales, Healthcare, Finance, Computer, Engineering, Retail, Restaurant, Government and more attended the NAACP National Convention Diversity Job Fair.

The NAACP National Convention Diversity Job Fair is open to the entire community and will offer exhibitor's the opportunity to meet some of the Region's most experienced and diverse candidates. NAACP Delegates from throughout the country and candidates from throughout the Atlantic Region will be in attendance. PSI is the only designated Job fair producer working nationally with the NAACP.

Information for Job Seekers:

Need only be curious to attend.

The Job Fair is free and open to the public.

Employers request that candidates be at least 21 years of age to attend.

Bring 20 * 30 copies of your resume and dress professionally for possible interview on-site at the Fair. Companies will be offering careers in a variety of areas. Most will prefer 4- year degree or equivalent experience.