

Dear Family and Friends,

It is with great excitement that I have been chosen to represent the District of Columbia Chapter of the North Carolina Central University Alumni Association in the 2008 Mr. Alumni Contest. As a candidate, my main responsibility is to raise funds that will support my university in attaining the best and brightest future leaders through the National Alumni Scholars program.

I graduated from The North Carolina Central University with a Bachelor's degree in Accounting in 1995 and I am currently working toward my Master's in Accounting and Information Technology degree from the University of Maryland University College. At present, I reside in the District of Columbia and work for the District Government as a Senior Accountant. Currently, I am serving my inaugural year as the District's Alumni Chapter Treasurer.

"The mission of North Carolina Central University is to prepare students academically and professionally to become leaders prepared to advance the consciousness of social responsibility in a diverse, global society. The university will serve its traditional clientele of African-American students; it will also expand its commitment to meet the educational needs of a student body that is diverse in race and other socioeconomic qualities (www.nccu.edu)."

I am committed to support the scholarship drive through several creative fundraising endeavors that will enhance my alma mater's mission. Your donations will help North Carolina Central University attain America's brightest minds and top achievers in the Arts and Sciences, Medicine, Law, and Business.

Would you please join me in this effort by financially supporting such a great cause?

Sincerely,

Angelo Peebles, Treasurer
Class of 1995

A stanza from NCCU ALMA MATER

You send us forth with hearts of love;
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray,
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray.
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C!
